-----[ENOUGH IS ENOUGH]-----

No More Tears (Enough Is Enough)

Barbra Streisand, Donna Summer

It's raining, it's pouring

My Civil Societ life is IGNORING me to tears, after all these years

No sunshine, no moonlight, no stardust, no sign of Respect/Resolves..

We don't stand a chance

I've always dreamed I found the perfect homebound voices of concern...

But he [that blocks me / violates my rights / destroys me] turned out to be like every other man

Our stresses, our conflicts

Raining (raining)

Pouring (pouring)

There's nothing left for us here

[San Bernardino Broken]

And we won't waste another tear

Ah, yeah

If you've had enough, don't put up with his stuff, don't you do it

If you've had your fill, get the check pay the bill, you can do it

Tell him to just get out [Mr. Mike 'iSocialCop' Bires]

Nothing left to talk about

Pack his raincoat show him out

Just look him in the eye and simply shout

Enough is enough (is enough)

I can't go on, I can't go on no more, no

Enough is enough (is enough)

I want him out, I want him...

OUT!

DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER COLOR OF LAW 18 U.S. CODE § 242

SUMMARY:

- Section 242 of Title 18 makes it a crime for a person acting under color of any law to willfully deprive a person of a right or privilege protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States. For the purpose of Section 242, acts under "color of law" include acts not only done by federal, state, or local officials within their lawful authority, but also acts done beyond the bounds of that official's lawful authority, if the acts are done while the official is purporting to or pretending to act in the performance of his/her official duties. Persons acting under color of law within the meaning of this statute include police officers, prisons guards and other law enforcement officials, as well as judges, care providers in public health facilities, and others who are acting as public officials. It is not necessary that the crime be motivated by animus toward the race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin of the victim.

The offense is punishable by a range of imprisonment up to a life term, or the death penalty, depending upon the circumstances of the crime, and the resulting injury, if any.
